

THE WINES OF TIMBERLINE

Chosen “Best Oregon Wine List” every year since 2003

by Wine Press Northwest Magazine.

The Timberline Lodge wine program is built around a single premise: offer the best of the Northwest. As one of the most popular attractions in the Pacific Northwest we feel it is our responsibility and honor to showcase the region's bounty in food and wine. Oregon, with its award winning Pinot Noirs, is considered to be the Burgundy of North America, and Washington, with its incredible Cabernets and Merlots, could be called our Bordeaux. After you've sampled our list we think you'll agree with us that some of the world's best wines are being made here.

Nearly all the wines on the list are chosen at our weekly staff wine tastings. This helps ensure only the best wines get on our list, and it educates the staff about the wines at the same time. Consequently, your waitperson is sure to have suggestions and will be more than happy to help you choose the perfect wine. Ask them what they've tasted lately. If you're planning a trip into the Northwest wine country ask about an Oregon or Washington Winery guidebook.

Because we know the world doesn't revolve around Oregon and Washington, we offer a few great wines from other regions as well. But if you ask for a recommendation, we'll most likely steer you toward the local product. I think they probably do the same in Burgundy.

--David Villali, Timberline Lodge Wine Program Manager since 1994

CHAMPAGNE AND SPARKLING WINE

“I only drink champagne when I’m happy, and when I’m sad. Sometimes I drink it when I’m alone. When I have company, I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I am not hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it—unless I’m thirsty.”
