ABOUT DAYDREAM

A series of pleasant thoughts, a distraction from the present moment — from time to time we all need a break, a rest, a Daydream.

The Timberline ethos prioritizes not only Mount Hood stewardship and a high level of social responsibility, but positivity and support of each other. Through authentic relationships and interests, Doernbecher and Timberline realized their core values are aligned for the greater good, for supporting hope. It is through these beliefs that Daydream was born: an inspiring, supportive, hope-filled distraction — a day-of-days benefiting OHSU Doernbecher Children's Hospital and the children and families they serve.

Join us Sunday, August 31, 2025 at the historic Timberline Lodge for Daydream: a celebration of music, brews and bikes.

ABOUT DOERNBECHER

A Level 1 trauma center and home of the largest pediatric intensive care unit in Oregon, OHSU Doernbecher Children's Hospital has provided hope and healing to children and families in the Pacific Northwest for nearly 100 years.

Doernbecher plays a vital role in the region, offering care and expertise not available at most local hospitals, and it does so at a level of excellence that has marked us as one of the best children's hospitals in the world. We serve children and families by delivering clinical care that is second to none; research to eliminate the diseases that plague our youth today; education to make sure that your children's children have the highest quality medical care available; and advocacy to ensure that the larger needs of kids in our communities are met.

From the beginning, philanthropy has fueled these efforts to advance children's health and well-being at Doernbecher. Our goal is to expand our services and continuously improve care to meet the evolving demands of today. Community support is more vital than ever to ensure Doernbecher remains outstanding and accessible for every child and family across the Pacific Northwest.

ABOUT TIMBERLINE

Timberline is known for world-class skiing, snowboarding, culinary experiences and the historic Timberline Lodge. The lodge, which stands on the south slope of Mount Hood at an elevation of 6,000 feet, was built in 1937 as part of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Works Progress Administration to provide relief through public employment during the Great Depression. This beautiful 55,000-square-foot structure rises out of a pristine alpine landscape and is still being used for its original intent — a magnificent ski lodge and mountain retreat for everyone to enjoy. Legendary and awe-inspiring, it's a tribute to the rugged spirit of the Pacific Northwest. Declared a National Historic Landmark in 1977, Timberline is one of Oregon's most popular tourist attractions, drawing nearly two million visitors every year.

In addition to skiing and snowboarding, Timberline appeals to many other outdoor enthusiasts, including mountain bikers and hikers. A vast majority of visitors come for the overall experience, to soak up the natural beauty of Mount Hood, take a tour of the historic lodge and enjoy a meal in one of Timberline's many restaurants.

With so many things to do and see, Timberline Lodge remains a top destination for locals and tourists, all year long.
